Hang Lung Properties Honored for Clinching Investor Relations Awards

(Hong Kong, May 28, 2018) Living up to its cherished business philosophy of We Do It Right, Hang Lung upholds the highest standards of corporate governance structure and a sound internal control mechanism in order to develop industry-leading best practices. Thanks to this dedication and perseverance, Hang Lung Properties has garnered the 3 years IR Awards Winning Company award at the 4th Investor Relations Awards, serving as additional recognition of the Company's outstanding achievements in investor relations over the years.

Hang Lung takes a proactive approach in maintaining close communications with investors. Through a wide range of channels such as regular analyst briefings, analyst and institutional conferences and forums, overseas non-deal roadshows, annual general meetings, annual reports and the WeChat official account of Investor Relations, the market is able to fully understand the Company's potential for growth. Each year, Hang Lung meets over 500 investors from around the world and organizes tours for analysts and investors to have on-site updates of the Company's operational status as well as the progress achieved in the various asset enhancement initiatives.

The Investor Relations Awards organized by the Hong Kong Investor Relations Association (HKIRA) aims to recognize outstanding performance in investor relations by listed companies and professionals. This year, there were around 184 listed companies competing for awards in 29 categories.
