Grand Gateway 66 Wins “Best Commercial Renovation/Redevelopment Project” Award at Asia Pacific Property Awards 2021–2022

(Hong Kong, June 1, 2021) Hang Lung Properties is pleased to announce that Grand Gateway 66, its landmark project in Shanghai, has won yet another major award for its outstanding Asset Enhancement Initiative – “Best Commercial Renovation/Redevelopment Project” – at the Asia Pacific Property Awards 2021-2022.

This latest top industry award deepens the recognition of the outstanding strength of Hang Lung Properties following the Gold Award in the “Best Refurbished Building” category at MIPIM Asia Awards 2020, and the “Best Asset Enhancement Initiative (Mainland China)” at the PropertyGuru Asia Property Awards 2020.

Mr Peter Leung, Director – Project Management of Hang Lung Properties, said, “With a polished aesthetic and more dynamic design, a refined look and a brand-new format, Grand Gateway 66 is committed to offering customers an upgraded lifestyle experience in shopping, leisure, and entertainment. This project is a wonderful manifestation of our brand vision ‘To create compelling spaces that enrich lives’. We are honoured to receive this award, and are particularly grateful to the organising committee and judging panel of the Asia Pacific Property Awards for their recognition of our project.”

As the first comprehensive commercial project in mainland China, Grand Gateway 66 has been a retail landmark combining business and culture since it opened two decades ago. To strengthen its leading position in the luxury retail market, and to fully reflect the Company’s customer-centric focus, Grand Gateway 66 has positioned itself as the “Gateway to Inspiration”. Following the completion of the three-year Asset Enhancement Initiative last November, Grand Gateway 66 will continue to deliver an enriched brand matrix, inspiring customers and raising the bar in providing unique Hang Lung one-stop lifestyle experiences.

Established in 2008, the Asia Pacific Property Awards has become the largest, most prestigious and influential section of The International Property Awards, a world-renowned and coveted mark of excellence. The awards aim to honour the outstanding property projects in Asia Pacific. Over the years, it has been regarded as one of the most recognised awards in the region for its authority and rigorous judging criteria.
